

FULL CONTROL

To surrender my heart's desires not an easy thing to do.

But you're ever true and faithful, you will always see me through.

Letting go of my plans and dreams as I grasp all things you hold,

Now I walk in faith and triumph, knowing you're in full control.

There are times when the shadows lengthen; I don't fully understand

The direction you have for me, how it all fits in your plans.

But I know you are always faithful, and in this you'll be faithful still.

Give me strength when doubts assail me, trusting in your perfect will.

"Father I surrender", let this my anthem be.

Give me now the eyes of faith to see your will for me.

To surrender my heart's desires not an easy thing to do.

But you're ever true and faithful, you will always see me through.

Letting go of my plans and dreams as I grasp all the things you hold,

Now I walk in faith and triumph, knowing you're in full control.

Now I walk in full control.

Lord take full control. All that I am, all that I shall be.

Lord take full control.

"Father I surrender", let this my anthem be.

Give me now the eyes of faith to see your will for me.

I surrender my hearts de sires: not an easy thing to do.

You are ever true and faithful, you will always see me trough.

I let go of my plans and dreams and I grasp all the things you hold.

I will surrender my whole life to you, knowing you're in full control.

I surrender my whole life to you, knowing you're in full control.
