

LOVE WILL FIND A WAY

Love, love will find away, love will live again, see another day breaking through the darkness,
shining from a-far, like a guiding star.
leading to tomorrow.

Some times you can hear the sound of the dreams you hold falling to the ground,
nothing lasts forever, nothing's here to stay.
love will come again, love will find a way.

When you're lonely seems you're only wasting time waiting for tomorrow.
All around you, things are changing ever changing day by day.

Love, love will find a way, love will live again see another day, nothing lasts forever nothing here to stay love will come again,
love will find a way.

Nothing lasts forever nothing's here to stay
love will come again, love will find a way
love will find a way, love will find a way
love will find a way.
